1. There is no mystery about the return of Dr. Nuci KOTIA to New York. He had arrived in this city a few days after the arrival of Hasan DOSTI, to take part in the talks on enlarging the Free Albania Committee (FAC).
2. KOTIA is supporting the admission of the BKI to FAC, but is encountering the opposition of Hasan DOSTI and of Zef PALI. The latter two reiterate their old accusations of collaborationism, and state that admission of BKI would result in a loss of prestige by the Free Albania Committee. Besides losing many of its adherents, FAC would be attacked harshly by the propaganda of the present Albanian regime.
3. It seems, therefore, that for the present FAC will not be enlarged. Thus fails the candidature of General Prenk PESHVIZI, representative of the Albanian refugees in Greece, who has arrived from Athens to take part in the conversations with the exile Albanians in Rome.
4. Discussions between Hasan DOSTI and Ali KLISURA have led to no concrete results and thus, there are no prospects that the schism in Balli Kombetar will be repaired. The fact is that the left wing of Hasan DOSTI and the Right wing of the Ali KLISURA group do not intend to be reconciled so that they can proceed to the reconstruction of their movement.
